[Verse]

A-4 E-4 I met her at the laundromat, she was washing extra hot E-4 I said, "Don't you need a little help E-2 A-2 with that big load you got?" A-4 She said no, but did a double take and then she A-2 D-2 smiled and said, "I might" E-4 E-2 As I rolled up my sleeves, I said to myself, A-4 A-2 "Well alright, well alright" [Verse] E-4 A-4 I put it on automatic and she sat down on the floor E-4 She said, "Just keep it on medium hot." E-2 A-2 I said, "I've done this before" A-4 A-2 Then I opened up the dryer and I set it on soft and E-2 light

E-4 She said, "Be gentle with my silk and lace." A-2 E-2 And I said, "Well alright" [Chorus] Δ-4 D-4 E-4 A-4 Mm hm hm Mm hm hm Well alright Mm hm hm [Verse] A-4 F-4 Her clothes were in the basket folded down, so nice and warm E-4 She headed for the door when I said, E-2 A-2 "I will take you home" A-4 She said, "I just live up the street," A-2 D-2 I said, "It's a dangerous night" E-4 Take my arm and I'll carry the basket." E-2 Δ-4 A-2 And she said, "Well alright, well alright" [Verse] Δ-4 The world's half full of women and the E-4 world's half full of men E-4 E-2 A-2 And sometimes one or the other opens up to let one in A-4 But the one I met at the laundromat that A-2 D-2 dangerous beautiful night

E-4 Said, "Yes, I do, and yes, I will." E-2 A-2 And I said, "Well alright"
