E C#m
Pretty little one How has it all begun?

E C#m
They're teaching you how to walk But you're already on the run

A E A B
Little one- What you gonna do? Little one- Honey, it's all up to you

E C#m
Now your daddy's in the den shootin' up the evening news

E C#m
Mama's with a friend, lately she's been so confused

A E
Little one- Come on and take my hand

A B
I may not have the answer but I believe I got a plan

A E
Honey you shake and I'll rattle and we'll roll on down the line

B E
And see if we can't get in touch with a very close friend of mine

A E
But let me clue you in, it ain't like him To argue or pretend

B-8 A-4 E-8
Honey let me introduce you to my redneck friend

E C#m
Well they've got a little list of all those things of which they don't approve

E C#m
They've got to keep their eyes on you or you might make your move

A E
Little one- I really wish you would

A B
Little one- I think the damage would do you good

A E
Honey you shake and I'll rattle, and we'll roll on down the line
B E
We're going to forget all about the battle It's gonna feel so fine
A
'Cause he's the missing link, the kitchen sink
E
Eleven on a scale of ten
B-8 A-4 E-8
Honey let me introduce you to my redneck friend

A E
Honey you shake and I'll rattle, and we'll roll on down the line
B
I'm going to try to swing you up into my saddle
E
And then we'll run but you'll think we're flyin'
A
Now honey don't just stand there
E
Lookin' like this dream will never end
B-8 A-4 E-8
Honey let me introduce you to my redneck friend
