

Four Letter Word
SLOW 4

INTRO B7

B7

Well it's only been two years and she already hates my dog

B7

She been up and down the street lights she don't understand the law

E7

I'm pining for some time where I ain't looking at her face

B7

And every time she talks to me, I'm staring into space

E7-8

B7-8

And I get antsy, real commitment seems absurd

A-4

[E-4]

B7-8

Out here in the country forever is a four letter word

B7

We got married in a hurry, it was such a lovely day

B7

I said do you and she said I do and now she's here to stay

E7

My independence called me from the payphone far away

B7

He said listen man, I'm worried, you ain't never been this way

E7-8

B7-8

And I get antsy, real commitment seems absurd

A-4

[E-4]

B7-8

Out here in the country forever is a four letter word

Solo| B7-8 B7-8 | E7-8 B7-8 | E7-8 B7-8 | A-4 [E-4]| B7-8|

STOP ON E

B7

Well I grew up in the country where no borders line the lots

B7

But when I moved into the city, I built walls around my block

E7

And I crawled into a hole I thought would keep me same and warm

B7

But she tricked me into crawling out and now I'm working on her farm

E7-8

B7-8

And I get antsy, real commitment seems absurd

A-4

E-4

B7-8

Out here in the country forever is a four letter word

A-4

[E-4]

B7-8

Out here in the country forever is a four letter word

Solo outro – STAY ON B7