

KANSAS CITY SOUTHERN

ALL CHORDS 8 BEATS (2 MEASURES)

INTRO D

D D
When I was a young man and the evening sun went down
D D
I'd walk along those railroad tracks and I'd listen for that sound
G G D
Kansas City Southern, man, and that's a lonesome sound
A G
Well I'd sit and watch those trains go by and I'd wish
D D
That I was onward bound

D D
Well, I dream about the big cities and the pleasures that I keep
D D
Along about 12: 30 through the phases of my sleep I hear that
G G D
Kansas City Southern, man, and that's a lonesome sound
A G
Well, I sit and watch those trains go by and I wish
D D
That I was onward bound

D Bm D Bm
Won't you blow, whistle blow? Won't you blow, whistle blow?

INTERLUDE D D

D D
I been a couple a places, I seen a lotta things
D D
Whenever I reach back in time my memory starts to ring
G G D
Kansas City Southern, man, and that's a lonesome sound
A G
Now, I sit and watch those trains go by and I wish
D
That I was homeward bound

D Bm D Bm
Won't you blow, whistle blow? Won't you blow, whistle blow?
