G-8                      G-8

She used to work in a diner, never saw a woman look finer

G-4                      SINGLE NOTES                      C-8

I used to order just to watch her float across the floor

G-8                      Gsus4-2 G-4

She grew up in a small town, never put her roots down

G-4                      G-2                      G-8

Daddy always kept movin', so she did too.

C-2                      G-4

Somewhere on a desert highway

G-2                      C-2                      G-4

she rides a Harley Davidson

G-4                      G-2                      SINGLE NOTES                      C-8

Her long blonde hair flyin' in the wind.

G-8                      C-2                      G-4

She's been runnin' half her life the chrome and steel she rides

G-4                      G-2                      SINGLE NOTES                      C-8

collidin' with the very air she breathes

G-8

The air she breathes.
