

MAGGIE ALL CHORDS 2 STRUMS EXCEPT WHERE NOTED

[Intro]

Em D Em C-1 C/B-1 Am Em G D

[Verse 1]

Em D Em C-1 C/B-1
When I first set eyes on you
Am Em G D
First you beat me up, then you kissed me too
Em D Em C-1 C/B-1
We'd throw stones into the sea
Am Em G D
There were no others there, just you and me
Em D Em C-1 C/B-1
I crossed the bridge and down the lane
Am Em G D
I knew I loved you then, you said you did the same

[Chorus]

C G C G
Oh Maggie, what have you done?
C G G D
I should've seen it coming, and to your side I'd run
C G C G
Oh Maggie, come to me tonight
C G G D
I will wait up for you, make sure you're alright
Em D Em C-1 C/B-1 Am Em G D
I miss you

[Verse 2]

Em                    D                    Em    C-1 C/B-1
You taught me how to sink or swim
Am                    Em
  when I was scared that day
G                    D
you just pushed me in
Em                    D                    Em    C-1 C/B-1
  and when nobody was around
Am                    Em
  you let me kiss you then
G                    D
there the love I found
Em                    D                    Em    C-1 C/B-1
  I said I'd never let you go
Am                    Em
  you just smiled at me
G                    D
  how was I to know?

[Chorus]

C    G            C                    G
  Oh, Maggie, what am I to do?
C                    G                    G                    D
  How I can live with only memories of you?
C    G            C                    G
  Oh, Maggie, tell me the truth
C                    G
when your ship was sinking
G                    D
  did you think it through?
Em            D    Em    C-1 C/B-1 Am Em G D
I miss you

[verse 3]

Em                    D                    Em    C-1 C/B-1
You were the fountain of my youth
Am                    Em
and when I fumbled
         G                    D
you showed me what to do
Em                    D                    Em    C-1 C/B-1
and when we were both seventeen
Am                    Em
you left me standing there
         G                    D
but you were never mean
Em                    D                    Em    C-1 C/B-1
and when I saw you out with him
Am                    Em
He looked much older and
G                    D
you looked very thin

[Verse 4]

Em                    D                    Em    C-1 C/B-1
I hadn't heard from you in years
Am                    Em
And then your mama called
G                    D
she couldn't speak for tears
Em                    D                    Em    C-1 C/B-1
she said you left me a note
Am                    Em
inside my pocket burns
G                    D
With these words you wrote

[Chorus]

C G C G
Hey darling boy, don't you cry for me
C G G D
I am forever yours now that I am free
C G C G
we'll be together put stones into the sea
C G G D
they'll be no others there just you and me
Em D Em C-1 C/B-1 Am Em G D
I miss you Maggie's gone
Em D Em C-1 C/B-1 Am Em G D-8

[verse 5]

Em D Em C-1 C/B-1
I think you came the other night
Am Em
you stroked my brow
G D
Your eyes were full of light
Em D Em C-1 C/B-1
may have only been a dream
Am Em
but I would walk with you to
G D places I never have
Em D Em C-1 C/B-1 Am Em G D
been Maggie's gone
Em D Em C-1 C/B-1 Am Em G D Em-4 Em-2 [Em]
