VERSE 1

(E) She caught the train to Berkeley, got that PhD

So I lit out for Nashville, just to see how it could be

(A) Two months later it was really clear

(E) the honky tonk is lonesome with my baby out there

[B7] But I'm OK, cause I like to play and I [E] got three bottles of wine

It's a lonely place in the middle of a crowd

When your love is far away and her heartbeats twice as loud

And if the jobs don't pay and your work don't sell

Then its a low cost low rent story you'll tell

But I'm OK, cause I like to play and I got three bottles of wine

VERSE 3

Now even though my baby's got that PhD

It's no small wonder that she still loves me

So I grabbed that ol train back to Berkeley ca

Just in time to hear the dead sing touch of grey

But We're ok cause we like to play and we got three bottles of wine
